

Figure 1.1 Ornamental kale is as tasty as the better-known green variety, and it adds a colorful highlight to a winter landscape. (Photograph by Rosalind Creasy.)

Figure 1.2 'Romanesco' broccoli, sometimes called 'Green Point,' should be planted in late summer in moderate winter areas, or in the early spring in cold winter areas. Be sure to give this spectacular plant a prominent place in your edible landscape.